SPARE THE OLD HOMESTEAD. O, spare that old homestead, Nor ruthlessly part The ties that have bound it

So long to my heart, When undering and weary, And burdened with care. A bright spot of sunshine

Still beams for me there, Then spars the old homestead, 'Tis don't to me yet; The bound of my childhood Lau'er can forget.

O, spare the old horsestend! Prwas there I first know The love of my mother, Still changless and true; A father's a brother's,

A loved slater's care-O, these are the memories That beam on me there! Then spare the old housestead, "Tis dear to me yet; The home of my childhood

I ne'er can forgot. O, spars the old homestead! Though most evergrown, Its halls all desected,

Decaying alone; Yet back to its hearth-stone My heart will repair, As though its warm gractings -Still weicomed me there. Then spare the old homestead, 'Tis dear to me yet

I ne'er can forget. O, spare the old homestead Till that pensive hour, When are makes me weary. And life yields its power; Then bear me whom fainting, To breath its swoot air. And die 'mid the sunshine That beams on me there! Then spare the old-homestead,

'Tis done to me yet; The home of my childhood Incter can forget.

The Old Oaken Bucket.

The New York Sunday Age relates the origin of this famous ballad, written, it seems by Samuel B. Woodworth, when a varueyman printer, in an office situated at the corner of Chatham and Chambers street, New York. Near by, in Frankfort street, was a drinking shop, kept by a man named Mallory, where Woodworth and several particular friends used to resort .-One afternoon the liquor was super-excellent. Woodworth seemed inspired by giass upon the table, and smacking his lips, declared that Mallory's can devic was superior to anything he had ever tasted.

"No," said Mallory, "you are mistaken; there was one which in both our estima-

To CLARIFY MAPLE SUGAR:-The season is coming on when the manufacture of maple sugar will commence; and for the information of those who like to make a good article, we commend the method which an intelligent Vermont farmer practices for the purpose of removing the coloring matter of the sap, and which renders the sugar nearly as white as com-mon crushed augar. His method is to filtrate all his sap before boiling through a hopper or box of sand, which he says, takes out, not only all the dirt, but all the stains derived from leaves, tubs, crumbs

DR. JOHN BULL. SOMETHING NEW AND VALUABLE.

The most powerful King on the face of the globe now The most powerful King on the face of the gauss now reigns sipprense in the American Republic. The power of the errormed heads of Europe sink into Indignificance when compared to that of our American King. European Kings employ the power vested in them to increase the reims of the rich and lordly, and to reduce to greater wheer and degradation the poor and depun-dent. Our American King goes forth with equal silling-tes to the lordly manison and humble cabin, ready silling to a luminister reiner and to other health and happpiness to before and leaving the rich and the poor.

Is the TERTH WONDER OF THE WOLD, and the greatest be-soing ever eilers to afficied humanity; to the suffering millions, the Doctor can say, relief is at your community. You have only to use this magical remisely. All those win still suffer, and will not accept the profisced baim, deserve not the pity of their families.

This wonderful medicine, during the brief period sluce he incrediction, has carried happiness to the hearts of thousands, and mills lifes charm to many who hereicfore regarded it only as a painful and miserable existence.

To the winds with all Liminesta, Embrocations, Palis Kilicos, and Pain Extractors, and to the great American King of Pain. 'a preparation composed solely of vegotables and roots, produced by America's own rich and bounteous soil.

We would ask the Labies, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do its a special favor by giring the King of Palin a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf recommend it, speak well and often of it, and we take the same always charitable, and when they induce their sufficient friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can seel be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical reneally for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, &c. and for many internal afflictions, it is a certain care, yet it is perfectly intended afflictions, it is a certain care yet it is perfectly intended afflictions, it is a certain care of the weakest constitution.

It is certify useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing in the public thousands of certificates of unders performed by this medicine. It come but two styckes cents to try it; and br. that stakes his well cared reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he calms for it.

It is entirely mealess to file the public thousands of certificates of unders performed by this medicine. It come but two styckes cents to try it; and br. that stakes his well cared reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he calms for it.
